

Refer to N-5 C

6

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 25, 1962

UNCLASSIFIEDTOP SECRET - SENSITIVEExecutive Committee Record of Action, October 25, 1962, 10:00 A.M.
Meeting No. 4

1. Mr. McCone presented the intelligence briefing.
2. The President requested Mr. McCone to prepare a careful analysis of the present situation inside Cuba, and he asked for further consideration by USIA of the possibility of dropping propaganda leaflets. T.M.C.
3. The Secretary of Defense reported the current military situation, and on the President's direction instructions were issued for selective investigation and boarding of non-bloc ships, excluding tankers. C/O
4. The Secretary reported that all armed forces in Cuba [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Many installations are so camouflaged as to be in a low state of readiness. The Secretary recommended a program of low-level reconnaissance for the purpose of improving intelligence, camouflaging the possibility of a later low-level attack, and emphasizing our concern with offensive installations already in Cuba. The President approved an immediate daylight mission of 8 low-level reconnaissance aircraft to cover missile sites, airfields holding IL28's and MIG's, COMAR naval vessels, coastal installations, nuclear storage sites, and selected SAM sites. C/O
EXC
63
6140
5. The President directed that the tanker BUCHAREST not be intercepted for the present. Her status as a tanker with no contraband cargo made it desirable to allow her to proceed. He directed further that the Defense Department be prepared to make an intercept of an appropriate bloc ship on Friday in daylight. K
6. The President approved a version of an answer to U Thant, but in later discussion a revised version was worked out between New York and Washington and approved by the President at 1:15 p.m.
7. There was preliminary discussion of alternative courses of action in the immediate future, and the President asked the other members of the Committee to make appropriate arrangements for preparing alternative courses of action for discussion with him at a later meeting. X
5
done
8. The President approved the recommendation of the Secretary of Defense that missile fuel be added to the list of contraband goods under the Proclamation of Interdiction. C/O

Partially Declassified/Released on

(E89-131) under provisions of E.O. 12356 and

by N. Menan, National Security Council

Same as F88-822, #372a

F88-822, #434

UNCLASSIFIEDTOP SECRET - SENSITIVE

McGeorge Bundy

D O S 2 123

P B

EXCISED COPY FOLLOWS

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 25, 1962

Executive Committee Record of Action, October 25, 1962, 10:00 A.M.
Meeting No. 4

1. Mr. McCone presented the intelligence briefing.
2. The President requested Mr. McCone to prepare a careful analysis of the present situation inside Cuba, and he asked for further consideration by USIA of the possibility of dropping propaganda leaflets.
3. The Secretary of Defense reported the current military situation, and on the President's direction instructions were issued for selective investigation and boarding of non-bloc ships, excluding tankers.
4. []
5. The President directed that the tanker BUCHAREST not be intercepted for the present. Her status as a tanker with no contraband cargo made it desirable to allow her to proceed. He directed further that the Defense Department be prepared to make an intercept of an appropriate bloc ship on Friday in daylight.
6. The President approved a version of an answer to U Thant, but in later discussion a revised version was worked out between New York and Washington and approved by the President at 1:15 p.m.
7. There was preliminary discussion of alternative courses of action in the immediate future, and the President asked the other members of the Committee to make appropriate arrangements for preparing alternative courses of action for discussion with him at a later meeting.
8. The President approved the recommendation of the Secretary of Defense that missile fuel be added to the list of contraband goods under the Proclamation of Interdiction.

McGeorge Bundy.

Box 8, VP SECURITY FILE, LBJ

COPY 123 LIBRARY

COPY

ANNOTATED COPY FOLLOWS

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 25, 1962

16

B4-15

~~TOP SECRET~~ - SENSITIVE

Executive Committee Record of Action, October 25, 1962, 10:00 A.M.
Meeting No. 4

1. Mr. McCone presented the intelligence briefing.
2. The President requested Mr. McCone to prepare a careful analysis of the present situation inside Cuba, and he asked for further consideration by USIA of the possibility of dropping propaganda leaflets.
3. The Secretary of Defense reported the current military situation, and on the President's direction instructions were issued for selective investigation and boarding of non-bloc ships, excluding tankers, with no surface cargo only.
4. The Secretary reported that all armed forces in Cuba
Many installations are so camouflaged as to be in a low state of readiness. The Secretary recommended a program of low-level reconnaissance for the purpose of improving intelligence, camouflaging the possibility of a later low-level attack, and emphasizing our concern with offensive installations already in Cuba. The President approved an immediate daylight mission of 8 low-level reconnaissance aircraft to cover missile sites, airfields holding IL28's and MIG's, COMAR naval vessels, coastal installations, nuclear storage sites, and selected SAM sites.
5. The President directed that the tanker BUCHAREST not be intercepted for the present. Her status as a tanker with no contraband cargo made it desirable to allow her to proceed. He directed further that the Defense Department be prepared to make an intercept of an appropriate bloc ship on Friday in daylight.
6. The President approved a version of an answer to U Thant, but in later discussion a revised version was worked out between New York and Washington and approved by the President at 1:15 p.m.
7. There was preliminary discussion of alternative courses of action in the immediate future, and the President asked the other members of the Committee to make appropriate arrangements for preparing alternative courses of action for discussion with him at a later meeting.
8. The President approved the recommendation of the Secretary of Defense that missile fuel be added to the list of contraband goods under the Proclamation of Interdiction.

11250

LETTER (MLK-77-15 NOVEL)

NARS. DATE 12/5/80

McGeorge Bundy
McGeorge Bundy

~~TOP SECRET~~ - SENSITIVE